all three rows are collinear; $M(H)$ singles out the ferromagnet, and only the spin splitting $\Delta(\boldsymbol{k}) = E_\uparrow(\boldsymbol{k}) - E_\downarrow(\boldsymbol{k})$ separates the other two non-relativistic limit throughout; $M(H)$ axes not to scale across panels; $d$-wave altermagnet shown, $g$- and $i$-wave also exist